

October 2024

Generally dry conditions are expected, with some areas receiving less than 40mm of rainfall. Chizimalupsa rains may occur, accompanied by strong gusty winds and lightning.

November 2024

Expected to be drier than normal with rainfall less than 100mm across the district. Rains may be accompanied by strong winds and lightning.

December 2024

Rainfall between 100mm and 200mm expected in many parts of the district. Areas around Makhanga may receive less than 100mm.

January 2025

A wetter month, with rainfall ranging from 200mm to 300mm. Some areas south of TA Ngabu and north of TA Mlolo may receive less than 200mm. Low chance of prolonged dry spells, but a high flood threat.

February 2025

Rainfall expected between 150mm and 250mm in most areas. Chance of dry spells lasting around two weeks in some parts of the district.

March 2025

Rainfall ranging from 100mm to 200mm, exceeding normal levels for this time of year.

April 2025

Marks the end of the rainfall season. Most areas will receive less than 50mm of rainfall.

Seasonal Details

- Rainfall onset expected between the last week of November and the first week of December.
 - Rainfall cessation expected between the last week of March and the second week of April.
 - The season length is expected to range between 110 and 140 days.
 - Dry spells of around two weeks or less are possible in February.
-